TIPS TO PREVENT SKIN CANCER

1. Seek shade
2. Wear protective clothing
3. Generously apply sunscreen (SPF 30+)
4. Use extra caution near water, snow and sand. These surfaces reflect the damaging rays of the sun, which can increase your chance of sunburn
5. Get Vitamin D safely through healthy diet and vitamin supplements

- Early detection of melanoma can save your life.
- Carefully examine all of your skin once a month.
- A new changing spot should be evaluated.

TIPS TO PREVENT HEAT STROKE

1. Wear loose-fitting, lightweight, light colored clothing
2. Avoid sunburns
3. Seek cooler places
4. Drink plenty of fluids
5. Take extra precautions with certain medications
6. Avoid hot spots

Source: www.strokeassociation.org

It's best not to exercise or do any strenuous activity in hot weather, but if you must, follow the same precautions and rest frequently in a cool spot. Taking breaks and replenishing your fluids during that time will help your body regulate your temperature.

ABC's of First Aid

First aid addresses three critical issues:

1. Airway, making sure that the person can breathe
2. Blood, making sure the person is not going to bleed to death
3. Cardio, making sure the person's heart is beating.

First aid might be as simple as putting alcohol and a bandage on a scrape, immobilizing bones so surrounding tissue isn't damaged, or it might be as intense as restoring breathing and heart beat. First aid can also be psychological, aiding people who are so traumatized that they may not be functional, and they need support and guidance to move forward and make safe decisions.

Benefits of knowing CPR

CPR, or cardio-pulmonary resuscitation, is an important skill that everyone should learn.

- You do not need to be a medical professional to know or use CPR.
- You never know when you may need this skill to save someone you love or to be a hero to a stranger.

Lifesaving

Situations may arise when you come across someone whose breathing or heart has stopped. Immediate action with CPR is the most effective way to save that individual, as an ambulance may not arrive for minutes. Providing CPR could mean the difference between life and death for someone who's unconscious.

WELLNESS CHECKS

Peace of Mind that your Loved Ones who live alone are okay.

- Create a circle of caring family and friends to check in on seniors, families or individuals who may not have or have substandard cooling units for our intense Arizona Heat!
- Develop a plan to check in on a regular basis

It is simple just:

1. Make a call
2. Drop by for a quick visit
3. Call the police in cases where you get no response

PHOENIX HEAT RELIEF NETWORK

Places to turn to when the heat is extreme.

The Phoenix Heat Relief Network provides hydration, respite and wellness checks during the summer months. During this time, temperatures consistently rise above 100°F during the day. The National Weather Service issues extreme heat advisories during the hottest of these days or when nighttime temperatures remain excessively high. The Phoenix Heat Relief Network adds additional community resources to the ongoing efforts of agencies assisting people who are homeless, elderly or disabled when they are most needed. The network forms each May and operates through September.

Relief is....

- A bottle of water
- A place to find refuge and cool off for a while
- Lightweight clothes and hats to wear, sunscreen

DROWNING PREVENTION

- Use an approved barrier to separate the pool from the house.
- NEVER allow children to be alone near a pool or any water source. This includes bathtubs, buckets, toilets, ponds and canals.
- Have life-saving devices near the pool, such as a hook, pole, or flotation device.
- Keep large objects such as tables, chairs, tricycles or ladders away from pool fences.
- NEVER leave children unattended in or around a pool. ALWAYS have a designated child watcher.
- Do not allow children to play in the pool area. Store all toys outside of the pool area.

If you leave the pool area, take the child (children) with you.

Pool Safety Tips:

- Learn to swim.
- Never swim alone.
- Never swim under the influence of alcohol or medications.
- Never swim when you hear thunder or see lightning.
- Never dive into an unfamiliar body of water.
- Learn CPR

When should I wear a life jacket?

- Always wear a life jacket when boating or rafting and when using an inner tube or personal watercraft.
- Children and inexperienced swimmers should wear life jackets whenever in, on and around the water, even if a lifeguard is present.
- Wear life jackets in open water, waterparks or other challenging environments and around cold water and ice.

How do I choose a life jacket?

- Make sure it is the right type for the activity
- Make sure it is U.S. Coast Guard approved. Look for the stamp on the life jacket
- Make sure it fits the intended user. Check the label on the life jacket for weight limits
- Check buckles and straps for proper function.
- Discard any life jacket with torn fabric or loose straps
- Put it on and practice swimming with it.
- Water wings, swim rings, inflatable toys and other items designed for water recreation are not substitutes for U.S. Coast Guard-approved life jackets or adult supervision.

That's the message APS wants to get out to the greater Phoenix area this summer as we head into a season known for backyard projects, trimming trees and monsoon season.

Electricity keeps us cool, keeps our lives running and is something we are around on a daily basis. If not treated with caution and respect, electricity can cause severe injuries. Whether you are at home, or out and about, it's important to keep electrical safety in mind. With this safety information, we hope to help you make every day a safe day.

The following tips will help you identify and avoid potentially hazardous conditions when working with or near electricity at home or outdoors:

- Make sure you know the location of buried electrical lines. Call 811 before you dig.
- Contact your local electric utility before you trim or cut down trees that are near overhead power lines.
- Look up before trimming trees to ensure there are no power lines nearby.
- Keep metallic balloons indoors, as they are highly conductive, dispose of them properly in the trash; do not release balloons near overhead lines.
- Learn what "danger high voltage" signs look like, and stay away from those areas.
- If your vehicle comes to rest touching a downed power line, stay inside the vehicle, remain calm, call 911 and then call APS.
- Call 911 if you see a downed power line or exposed electrical equipment. Keep yourself safe by staying 100 feet away.
- Treat all wires with caution, regardless of size. Always assume any wire is energized.
- If a storm hits and you see damage to an area that has power lines in the vicinity, stay away from the area and call 911. The area may still be energized.

And most importantly, please remember to have a safe day.
