Happy Holidays
Under the Americans with Disabilities Act, PRC must make a reasonable accommodation to allow a person with a disability to take part in a program, service or activity. For example, this means that if necessary, PRC must provide sign language interpreters for people who are deaf, a wheelchair accessible location, or enlarged print materials. It also means that PRC will take any other reasonable action that allows you to take part in and understand a program or activity, including making reasonable changes to an activity. If you believe that you will not be able to understand or take part in a program or activity because of your disability, please let us know of your disability needs in advance at all possible. Please contact PRC at 602-253-6895.

Thank you everyone who participated in the Trunk or Treat of Matthew Henson! It was great seeing the kids have so much fun wrapping each other up in toilet paper to become a mummy or stuffing their faces and filling their tummies with pumpkin pie! Tonight’s event was a success and it all happened thanks to our teams coming together to create a fun filled community for families. I am grateful to work with you all! Have a safe and Happy Halloween tomorrow! Please enjoy the pictures below!
Starting August 3rd come join us at Harmon Library for a Family Storytime every Saturday at 11-11:30 am

We will share books, stories, songs, rhymes, and music in a fun interactive way that builds early literacy skills. What is your child learning? Children who love books and stories, and have opportunities to engage in active storytelling, become more successful readers.

This program is designed for children birth to six years old accompanied by a favorite adult but we want the whole family to join in.
Volunteers needed to plant trees in Grant Park

Come help us on Saturday, December 14th

Thanks to a generous donation of trees by the Sikh Foundation in Phoenix, the Grant Park neighborhood will be the recipient of 75 shade trees. Grant Park residents and local area Volunteers will gather on Saturday, December 14th at 7:30 AM at the Grant Park Community Garden, located at the corner of 3rd Ave and Grant to tackle the task of getting the trees in the ground. Volunteers are needed so hope you can join us.

Coffee and donuts will be provided before the event and lunch will be provided at the conclusion of the event.

Shovels will be provided but if you have one you can bring, feel free. Any questions about details for that day, call Silverio Ontiveros at 602 330 3620.

Are you a little stumped by what to give this holiday season? No need to worry, because America’s Friendliest Airport® is making it easy to pick up great gifts for friends and family before you board the plane. If you need to stock up on last-minute presents, check out Phoenix Sky Harbor’s 2019 Holiday Catalog filled with gifts available at the airport’s retail locations. Find the perfect gift for everyone in your family including your pets and friends. Whether you are shopping for jewelry, fragrances, treats, or apparel, you will be able to cross items off of your loved ones’ wish-lists. Every item in the catalog is available at a shop in one of Sky Harbor’s three terminals. The price, shop name and location are listed with each gift idea, which includes items for children, a significant other, a furry friend, cacti lovers and more. The online catalog features items from local retailers like Bunky Boutique and Roosevelt Row, as well as specialty items from regional and national stores. Also, did you know that you can purchase products at Phoenix Duty Free even if you are not flying internationally? Phoenix Duty Free is located pre-security in Terminal 4 and easily accessible to all visitors. Ticketed passengers flying internationally can visit the post-security Phoenix Duty Free between Gates B17 and B28. Duty Free items are plentiful, ranging from classic and sophisticated perfumes and fragrances to stylish, wireless headphones to designer sunglasses, among other things. For more information on airport shopping and to view the 2019 Holiday Catalog, visit skyharbor.com.
